We are a legal firm that has specialised in residential conveyancing for over 30 years. We give our clients certainty through our fixed price promise.

The Hains Difference

Because we focus on residential property law we can offer you peace of mind, knowing the people who are handling your important transaction know what they are doing.

We will treat you as our most important client, not a number. Whilst we have been around a long time and offer good old fashioned service we are one of the most technologically advanced legal firms in Queensland
